It’s important to talk with girls about the difference between healthy and unhealthy relationships and their right to be respected and safe. Relationship or dating violence is not limited to physical violence and may include emotional abuse, such as threats, intimidation, or blaming the person for the abuser’s actions.

Discuss these behaviors to help girls recognize different types of relationship violence and the warning signs. Use it as a conversation starter and let her know that if she has questions about a relationship that she should turn to a trusted adult.

Relationship violence can be characterized by one or more of the following behaviors. Some behaviors may initially seem to be light or playful and become more serious and hurtful over time.
